

Join Us for Upcoming In-Person and/or Online for Events

Sunday, June 7, Streaming Via Zoom only

Professor and Author, Michael Kossove, “We’re Still Here” A polio survivor, Mike Kossove is also Professor Emeritus and Adjunct Professor of Microbiology at Touro University, School of Health Sciences in New York. He is certified as a Specialist in Public Health and Medical Laboratory Microbiology by the National Registry of Microbiology and the American Society for Clinical Pathology. His most recent book, Polio: Then, Post-Polio, And The Survivors, is a look at the story of polio, past and present, through the lens of both scientific and personal accounts.

Date and Time TBD - Summer Gathering – Dutch Treat

Sunday, August 2: 1:30 – 3:30 p.m., Indoor Picnic,

La Vista Nebraska Community Center

Author, Millie Lill, “Humor Heals”

Millie Lill has been a member of NPSA since shortly after it was created and has had an article in every issue of Gleanings since then. NPSA founder, Nancy Baldwin Carter, chose Lill for this job. She was also editor of Gleanings at different times in our history. Lill has written and/or edited eight books that are for sale on Amazon. Her poetry has also been published in Lyrical Iowa.

Sunday, September 13: 2 – 4 p.m., Streaming via Zoom

Recording artist, music therapist, music educator and motivational speaker, Dianne McTaggart Wall, “Music Therapy, Miracles & Me” and “Music Therapy and PPS.”

A professional recording artist, Dianne McTaggart Wall, released an inspirational CD Touched by the Light in 2000, which includes one of her own compositions, "Mary's Song." In her writing, as in her motivational speaking presentation titled "Music Therapy, Miracles, and Me," Wall incorporates her own life experience, being born with polio and now living with Post Polio Syndrome in her memoir, Somebody Told Me I Could.

Sunday, October 18: 2 – 4 p.m., In-Person, La Vista Community Center

Annual Member Reunion – Food and Entertainment – An Afternoon of Song with Ron Glowen Karaoke and singers, Randy Krohn, Ron Glowen and Melodae Horst. Joining via Zoom – Dianne McTaggart Wall. Pick your song and come join us

Sunday, November 1: 2 – 4 p.m., Streaming Via Zoom

Amy Hansen, Ph.D., Department of Gerontology, University of Nebraska Omaha

Amy Hansen is an author, speaker and consultant on baby boomers and older adult ministry.

Date and Time TBD – Holiday Gathering – Dutch Treat